Stephanie Goldstein, Valerie Ford Jacob : Conducting Due Diligence in a Securities Offering (August 2013 Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Conducting Due Diligence in a Securities Offering (August 2013 Edition):

Today's major financial scandals demonstrate what can happen when investigators fail to uncover illegal activity because they failed to do effective background searches. PL's Conducting Due Diligence in a Securities Offering provides you with clear, step-by-step legal and procedural information that helps ensure you to do a thorough investigation of a company's records and its top managers' and reduce the potential for legal problems down the road. Featuring case histories that illustrate proper due diligence techniques, this practical, timesaving tool shows you how to dig deeper even when you are under tight deadlines, including how to fully review documents, conduct productive in-person and telephone interviews, use computers to do more cost-effective background searches, speed the process by using detailed questionnaires, and get help from outside investigators. Included is coverage of typical due diligence mistakes and traps and how to avoid them.
