David Clutterbuck : Developing Successful Diversity Mentoring Programmes: An International Casebook
before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Developing Successful Diversity Mentoring Programmes: An International Casebook:

A volume of mentoring principles to integrate minorities, improve community relations and harness the creative potential of different perspectives.

About the Author David Clutterbuck is Visiting Professor in the coaching and mentoring faculties of both Oxford Brookes and Sheffield Hallam Universities and a lifetime ambassador for the European Mentoring and Coaching Council. Kirsten M. Poulsen is Associate Professor at Copenhagen Business School, former (and first) President and co-founder of EMCC Denmark and an experienced management consultant and owner of KMP+. Frances Kochan is a Wayne T. Smith Distinguished Professor at Auburn University, Alabama, USA. She is the recipient of the Jay Scribner Mentoring Award from the University Council on Educational Administration and has consulted and written extensively on the topic.
