Great book by a great "teacher".By Paul CesakThis book gives good tips on all aspects of speaking, but most importantly, it gives me IDEAS—imaginative ideas, some bold and clever ones to use in my sales presentations where I sell commercial 3D printers. And, quite interestingly, the book even has a section on using 3D printers to create valuable prototypes and props that will give some serious bang to your talks! In a competitive sales world, fascinating ideas—translated into superior value propositions—help differentiate you and your products in ways that give you that much needed edge to win more deals. That's the real value of this book beyond the multitude of techniques and apps on using your iPad. At my last presentation about 3D printers, I got a standing ovation from the crowd. I hope to use this book to make that a more regular practice! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Highly Useful Tutorial By Customer The guidance provided in "Killer Presentations with Your iPad" is extensive, enlightening and easy to follow. I was happy to come upon this offering since I had recently acquired an iPad Mini, and I wanted to get maximum mileage out of it as a way to be ready to make presentations with the minimum of baggage. I highly recommend this book for anyone who wants to be sure they are getting the maximum out of their iPad for teaching and presentation purposes. A wonderful change from lugging with even a notebook PC. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. "Must Have Book for Those Who Need to Persuade or Influence Strongly" By Kathie "Killer Presentations With Your iPad is a terrific book for new or even seasoned, highly successful salespeople, marketers and business development professionals. I am so inspired- I think I can finally nail my story! This book has everything you need to dramatically elevate the impact and impressive results of your new, creative presentations!"
