About the Author
In early 2010, LaToya Ali entered the online social scene capturing the hearts of video viewers from all around the world. LaToya's charisma and incredible wit are among the few traits she is known for when expressing her candid opinions. Born in Toronto, Canada, to Trinidadian parents, LaToya is the eldest of eight children. When she entered middle school, her mother decided to pursue a college education in the United States. While continuously having to pack up her bags to move, she was forced to lose the opportunity to develop strong relationships with friends. With the desire to express her feelings, LaToya picked up a digital camera and began recording an open diary video series on YouTube. Today, LaToya is humble to be able to attract more than 200M views and currently over 1.7M avid subscribers on her YouTube channels. Her work online has led to numerous career opportunities, such as media appearances both in print and on screen and has collaborated with over 50+ prolific brands.
