Let me start by saying that I don't review much, but I felt compelled to write on this one due to all of the five stars out there for Jeff Walker. I think there are a) either a lot of Jeff Walker zealots out there or b) there was some type of incentive to give Launch a 5-star review. A little background - I own a successful software company. We delve into all types of ventures -- I like the space and I'm intrigued by new ways to market our business. Everything from Pay Per Click (PPC) to Organic Search (SEO) to Email campaigns to Webinars to Blogs. We've done them all and continue to do so with success; however, we're learning every day. Jeff makes web marketing seem easy. You just connect the dots when it's time to make some money. Oh, btw, if it doesn't seem that easy to you sign up for Jeff's Product Launch Formula. This book is a soft sell for that product. If you finish this book and look back it's actually a step-by-step process of his outline for building authority, trust, suspense, etc. At the end I felt like I got played and just laughed to myself. Having said that, Jeff has ideas that may work. I'm not sure I'd use them, but they may work. His general premise is to compile a good list and give the users good content. Some of it for free before you hit them with your offer. Get some feedback and tweak it. To do this there are some general steps to follow. I believe I read this in a prior review: Jeff glances over the part about creating a good list. What if you don't have a good list? Well, that's easy! Just start calling on your social media friends to subscribe to your offering! Way back in my day when I started selling we called this 'The Friends and Family Plan'. Did you ever have a friend come to you because they just started selling insurance? Yeah, it's like that. The thing is, I like my friends, or at least most of them. So, unless you have a good list you're starting in the hole. There is another option: Jeff does give you some ideas on creating your lists. I'm not sure this is the method I would follow, but it's there. Build your lists and come back to this book when you've built up a solid base. I've read a ton of books on these types of subjects. Believe it or not, if you're into this type of marketing you may want to read the 4 Hour Work Week by Tim Ferris. It's the same idea, but I liked it better. Here's the other thing that I've learned along the way: You don't have to do all of this yourself. It literally took me years to figure this out. There are plenty of freelance sites out there that you can source literally every step of this process for real cheap, and you take on a management role saving yourself a ton of time with better results. In short, I'm not saying I hated it. I'm merely saying that I most likely won't be using Jeff's ideas, nor will I be signing up for his Product Launch Formula. Update -- It looks like anything but 5-star reviews are getting pushed down by quick one or two sentence reviews that add nothing. Something is definitely going on here... Buyer beware

He very plainly goes over the steps on how he does it, but not how to setup carts, websites, where to advertise, and even how to advertise. This book really is more about the psychological path of the buyer and how to cater to them. If you want the real ABC 123 step by step, then OF COURSE you have to buy his online courses * UPSELL ALERT * , to actually be able to do a real launch correctly. Also, he tries to make you think you can do it, but if you don't have skills in a specific field and are not a master of a specific field, you won't be able to sell anyone information of any kind

By Michael Jeff your book was great man, and I'm launching my first product right now on an online marketing forum. From there I'm launch stacking, and I've got my high ticket program built in place to stack my launches! I'm so happy I purchased this book, what you teach about the sidew..... wait I can't reveal that to the public - it's the most powerful piece of marketing information when it comes to launching your product - but let me say this type of letter is a game changer brother! I am so thrilled man - because the knowledge in this book is practical, useful, extremely valuable, and something that is going to change my life. I am so pumped right now, because I started with a zero list and now I have subscribers who have been opening my emails commenting on my content, and I know they are going to grab all that I have to offer on open cart day. Man this book is great bro, I can't wait to share my results from my first PLF style Launch. As a sidenote - I've done one launch before, but it only generated two handful of sales - but what I've learned here is what I've been waiting for since I first heard about the concept of product launching. And for the person reading this review who has not bought the book - I have no association with Jeff Walker (although after reading his book - I'm gonna meet him in Colorado and go Skiing with him) prior to my purchase of his book Launch. But now that I have this, I highly recommend that you buy this book! Even if you only have 20 bucks in your bank account, this will be the investment that will multiply itself many times over. I'm already getting results with it, and my launch isn't for a few days from now - however - by the time you read this, I'll have already launched my first "LAUNCH" style launch. Man thanks so much Jeff for sharing this with me bro. I know you're reading this, and I hope it touches your heart to know that your work has changed my business already. I'm looking forward to what will be coming next in regards to launches, launch stacking, and building my business with your knowledge and guidance. BUY THIS BOOK! Seriously if you're still reading my rant and rave about his product then it's time to make a decision, whip out your credit card, add this to your cart, then buy this book! Buy two copies, heck buy three for your family! Man buy a whole box of these books and start handing them out to random people around the world - it will make your world a better place! I'm going off on a tangent here, but Jeff bro - thanks for the book! I've been recommending it to my clients, and I am applying what I've learned and getting small results so far. I'm only in pre-launch phase - but I'll find a way to let you know about what happens once I actually launch! Also - I am 'The Digital CEO' You'll hear about me soon! Thanks so much Jeff - for you reading who is not Jeff - BUY THIS BOOK RIGHT NOW! Or risk being banned from the internet and all the other cool things in life ;-).#BOSSSTATUS

"Launch" will build your business---fast. Whether you've already got a business or you're itching to start one, this is a recipe for getting more traction. Think about it---what if you could launch like Apple or the big Hollywood studios? What if your prospects eagerly counted down the days until they could buy your product? What if you could create such powerful positioning in your market that you all -but- eliminated your competition? And you could do all that no matter how humble your business or budget? Since 1996 Jeff Walker has been creating hugely successful online launches. After bootstrapping his first Internet business from his basement, he quickly developed an underground process for launching new products and businesses with unprecedented success. But the success-train was just getting started---once he started teaching his formula to other entrepreneurs, the results were simply breathtaking. Tiny, home-based businesses started doing launches that sold tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, and even millions of dollars in sales with their launches. "Launch" is the treasure map into that world---an almost secret world of digital entrepreneurs who create cash-on-demand paydays with their product launches and business launches. Whether you have an existing business, or you have a service-based business and want to develop your own products so you can leverage your time and your impact, or you're still in the planning phase---this is how you start fast. This formula is how you engineer massive success. Now the question is this---are you going to start slow, and fade away from there? Or are you ready for a launch that will change the future of your business and your life?

This is not just a book. It's a license to print money. (Okay, maybe I'm overstating it a bit, but not by much.) I used Jeff's Product Launch Formula to create a seven-figure-plus business I absolutely love. And unlike some successful entrepreneurs, he holds nothing back. It's all here: a proven strategy, real-world examples, and step-by-step instructions; everything you need to create a business you're crazy about while making an incredible living doing it. We knew we had unprecedented access to vast global audiences, but we lacked a simple, elegant way of introducing new products and closing sales. Enter Jeff Walker . . . who arrived well-versed in old-school direct marketing, coupled with a unique early-adopter's grasp of the potential online. He explained his idea to me, early on, as simply turning a damn good sales letter on its side . . . and using every aspect of this powerful new technology to attract prospects, build their desire to the breaking point, and then transform their lives by fulfilling on the promises that drove them nuts over an extended process of education, sharing, and giving away teasingly good samples. The launch formula he perfected produced results for us far beyond any of our other online marketing efforts . . . time after time after time. It was stunning. And fun. And elegant in its simplicity.
