From Springer : School Knowledge in Comparative and Historical Perspective: Changing Curricula in Primary and Secondary Education: 18 (CERC Studies in Comparative Education) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised School Knowledge in Comparative and Historical

In this special edited volume, scholars with diverse backgrounds and conceptual frameworks explore how economic, political, social and ideological forces impact on school curricula over time and place. In providing regional and global perspectives on curricular policies, practices and reforms, the authors move beyond the conventional notion that school contents reflect principally national priorities and subject-based interests.
